Special Collections and Archives 特藏及文獻組

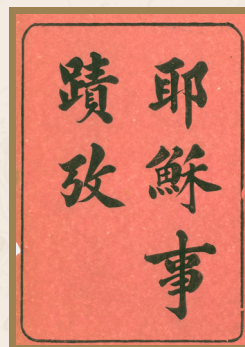

<https://library.hkbu.edu.hk/special-collections-archives>

Special Collections and Archives (SCA) collects, preserves, and organises library and archival materials to support scholarly research by the community of Hong Kong Baptist University (HKBU) and beyond. The collections include monographs, serials, newspaper clippings, microforms, audio and visual materials, manuscripts and posters. For preservation purposes, materials are housed in closed stacks but are available for research use.

ARCHIVES ON THE HISTORY OF CHRISTIANITY IN CHINA (AHC)

The Archives collects materials relating to the history of Christianity in China, Hong Kong, Taiwan and Macau, across denominations.

These materials include correspondence, diaries, manuscripts, microforms, lantern slides, maps, posters, postcards, serials and monographs, primarily in English and Chinese.

Preservation for the Documentation of Chinese Christianity

Our digital collection includes digitised rare books and publications from prominent Christian organisations, Studium Biblicum OFM, Chinese Christian Literature Council and Hong Kong Sheng Kung Hui.

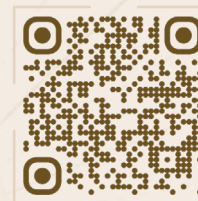

► For further details, please see the Archives brochure.

UNIVERSITY ARCHIVES (UA)

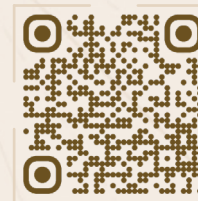

The University Archives safeguards and preserves HKBU's historical records and provides access for research into the University's history. We collect publications, photographs, memorabilia and records that capture the activities of academic and administrative units, student organisations and significant campus events.
