MISSION

The Library supports teaching, promotes learning, and enables research at HKBU, as a partner in whole person education.

VISION

Excellent collections and services, enhanced by the timely use of technology, are at the heart of our vision. Through teamwork and innovation, we will respond dynamically to the emerging needs of the University community, thus ensuring that the role and value of the Library will be understood and highly appreciated by everyone at HKBU.

DIRECTIONS

- Provide access to high quality collections that are closely aligned to teaching and research at HKBU, with an increasing emphasis on electronic resources

- Revitalize our services to support seamless access to information and high levels of information literacy among our users

- Lead the HKBU community in understanding and proactively adopting new models of scholarly communication and output

- Become the hub of intellectual and communal activity at HKBU by creating and developing a multipurpose physical environment

- Engage with stakeholders to promote awareness of the Library’s collections and services

- Build an organizational culture based on open communication and strong teamwork
